

We're Here to Help During the Federal Government Shutdown

Dear Member,

As you may have seen in the news, the U.S. government has entered a shutdown following a lapse in federal funding. While the full impact is still unfolding, Certified Federal Credit Union is closely monitoring the situation and remains committed to supporting our members, especially those whose pay or employment may be temporarily affected.

If you are a federal employee or contractor experiencing a delay in pay, please know:

- Back pay is guaranteed for most federal employees under the Government Employee Fair Treatment Act of 2019.
- We are here to help. If you find yourself facing financial challenges due to the shutdown, please contact us at 323.859.2250, Option [1]. We can offer flexible solutions such as short-term relief loans, payment extensions, or other assistance options.
- You are not alone. Our team members are ready to listen, support, and find options that fit your unique situation.

We will continue to monitor developments. Our priority today, and every day, is the financial well-being of our members.

Regards,
